Three Quality Shows each Year, which everyone can enter from the novice/beginner, who has one good bloom, to the experienced Gardner with the collection of vegetables.

Evening Talks in the King Edward Hall, light but interesting and with a diverse number of subjects the 2010 programme is as follows: -

13 th January	The Warrior Queens
10 th February	Secrets of Gardening and Showing
10 th March	A Demonstration of Floral Art
14 th April	Borde Hill Garden
12 th May	British Wildlife Centre
13 th October	Late Summer Flowers
10 th November	A Nurseryman's Lot (by ticket only purchased inadvance)

All talks commence at 8pm and for a small charge of £1, Visitors are most welcome.

Coffee Mornings, three times a year on a Saturday morning, we meet in the King Edward Hall for a Coffee and Biscuit and for a natter to friends and to buy a plant or two.

Plant Sales are held in May for the purchase of a wide variety of plants for the Garden. Members have priority at one of these sales.

The Sundries Centre is open throughout the Year for the sale of brand name quality composts, pesticides, fertilisers and lawn products, at very competitive prices.

Trading Scheme – offering discounts at a number of Nurseries and Garden Centres.

Seed Orders – save 20% on your seed orders each year with Sutton and Dobies.

Day Excursions – at least two outings are organised each year.
